To whom it may concern,

This letter serves as an application for the Senior position that utilizes my skills and expertise as a Regional Manager into adding more value to your esteemed organization.

Throughout my work experience of over twelve years, I have been able to learn and successfully execute the full processes and procedures related to the fields of Regional Operations Management in locations that were mainly in the Levant and GCC Regions which gave me the opportunity to adapt with the many prosperous cultures of the Gulf countries.

I have enclosed herewith my updated resume for your kind review and perusal. Should my work experience fit your criteria, I look forward to discussing this further at your convenience.

Your kind consideration is highly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Baher El Horr
