

My name is Amr Galal Helmy

I have 25 year of experience in various fields, such as IT, Business development, Customer Service and project management/coordination. This experience extends over various industries from Small Retail Businesses to Financial institutions.

I have an excellent track record in excelling at any field into which I venture. I'm also energetic, self-motivated, committed and possess an excellent set of talents and experience which have contributed in my success through my previous professional endeavors.

For further background, professional information and details, please find, attached, my CV for your kind review.

Thank you for your time and kind consideration