

WIAAM HAG AHMED

wiaamahmed@gmail.com

Dear Recruiter,

I would like to express my attention to the Kingdom of Bahrain I am a self-motivated and self-motion management with a large-scale background in this area. With a record of an initiative and innovation, you have developed strategies and I think they will bring a value to work and company

My studies in the business information management system along with experience in Uncle. I prepared the management to be successful. Once my qualifications are reviewed, I love to tell you more about my background. I have five years of experiences, has been sharpening the skills needed to succeed in this position. I am familiar with duty or industry and good agreements with equipment or software.

In my previous case, critical thinking and good treatment were practiced with the work of the team, motivation and time management in contributing to team efforts and organizational improvements. I am open minded and focused on new developments in Hungarian. They have shown they are effective and motivated, with mastery in communication and cooperative work. I enjoy mental architecture and coordination efforts to achieve a common goal.

Please take a moment to review my CV and fixed accreditation. I would like to have the opportunity to talk to you with regard to my candidacy for the vacancy.

I look forward to your reply and thank you for looking.

Sincerely,

Wiaam Hag Ahmed