

Dear Hiring Manager:

In my search for a new challenge where I can leverage my specialisation in Immunology and Haematology with extensive experience overseeing complex operations with department and laboratory settings, I was pleased to find an opening for a Position suitable for my expertise. Eager to learn more about this exciting opportunity, I have enclosed my CV for your review.

As my career profile illustrates with 20 years of experience, I am ready to make an immediate and longstanding contribution to hospital and clinic in the health sector. Having served as a Senior Technologist for 6 years in the GCC and as a Specialist Biomedical Scientist in the United Kingdom's National Health Service (NHS) with over 15 years of clinical knowledge, my skill set is well suited to your needs. I know what it takes to balance completing tasks, adapt to shifting priorities, and proactively address emergent issues. Additionally, my talents in communication and relationship building will enable me to seamlessly integrate with your team and provide exceptional service to your clients.

Further, I would bring the following strengths to your team:

- Planning and leading chemical, microscopic, immunological, and bacteriological testing, acquiring accurate data for clinical diagnosis and treatment purposes.
- Managing inventory and stock, evaluating new methodologies/equipment, and maintaining existing equipment and instrument to maintain seamless operational activities.
- Achieving performance excellence through strict quality assurance and control as well as development of policy and procedure manuals as per specified guidelines.
- Training, leading, and supporting diverse teams to ensure high-quality service delivery.
- Multi-lingual, fluent in English and Bengla and Basic in Arabic and Spanish, creating collaborative culture by building relationships with multi-disciplinary functions and senior leadership.

In me, the hospital will gain a diligent, goal-oriented professional with the agility, dedication, and focus required to successfully fill the role. As such, I would welcome the opportunity to meet in person and discuss this opening in detail.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Ferdousey Aziz
