

COVER LETTER

Dear Sir,

My name is OSMAN ABDELKAREEM ALBUSHRA, I am Sudanese, I was born in 1979, married and I am Assistant professor of English Language. I am writing this letter to express my interest in the opening post for teaching English language and I am so excited to work in your company. It has great chance to me, because I am going to work hard for promoting students' skills to learn and practice English language effectively, and treat students fairly with respecting and giving each student an opportunity to reach his/her fullest potential. Therefore, I have taught 6 years at universities and 18 years at Secondary schools' levels, so my teaching experiences have allowed me to work effectively with students from variety of backgrounds, because I have worked with a group of students who were very diverse with culturally. I have taught students who did not speak English very well, so I started collecting data, reviewing their progress and finding suitable ways to increase them and after short time, their language skills had greatly improved. In my current position at college, I work with groups of students who have very diverse learning styles and needs. I give the Students opportunities to reach their fullest potential by using active learning for developing their abilities.

Finally, I would like to tell you that I had professional training in how to teach English language effectively.

I look forward to sharing more details of my experiences and motivations with you.

Thank you for your consideration

Best regards
