PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

'A hardworking and driven individual, with the passion to work with children and to contribute to their development whilst also having the ability to create a positive and imaginative learning environment for pupils.'

EDUCATION

- 2011 – 2015 Demontfort University – Leicester, United Kingdom
BSc (Hons) Pharmaceutical and Cosmetic science
- 2006 - 2011 The Belvedere Academy) – Liverpool, United Kingdom
(Private Girls High School)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- May 2022 – June 2023 Homeschool
- Confidently homeschooled my 5 year old son for 1 year using the British curriculum, and hence brought him to an academic level of grade 2.
 - Drastically improved my son's reading level to an advanced stage for his age and successfully completing grade 1 Maths.
 - Organised, created and implemented lesson plans for my 5 year old, tailoring the curriculum to his needs, and creating goals for each subject. Identified his strengths and weaknesses then worked diligently on weaknesses.
- 2021-2022 Aspirations Primary School (Homeroom teacher and English teacher)
- Worked as a homeroom teacher for a KG2 classroom and was responsible for the class without the help of a classroom assistant.
 - Taught English to three KG -2 classrooms whilst also providing extra support to children whom were struggling to keep up with current level.
 - Due to a last minute request from school, was a substitute teacher for Quran and Maths classes and successfully created a lesson plan for each subject in a short space of time.
- June 2016- August 2016 WISE Summer Camp (Assistant Class Worker)
- Supervised Camp Manager in planning daily activities
 - Helped organize children into classroom groups based on age
 - Worked with large classroom sizes
 - Conducted activities with children when teacher was absent.
- 2013-2014 Orean Personal Care (Internship)
- Having worked as a cosmetic and skincare technical assistant, this enabled me to develop team working and problem solving skills and gave me the skills to deal with high pressure situations.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

- I possess excellent English speaking skills as well as a native British accent, which would be an asset in British schools.
- Driving License
- Story telling for children.
- Creating a comfortable and friendly environment for children, offering additional support for children with anxiety.
