Dear Sir or Madam,

With this letter I would like to express my interest in working with your esteemed Team.

I have completed my studies and I hold a Bachelor's degree in Psychology & Sociology, a Diploma in TESOL and recently I have finished the 40 hours training session of Registered Behaviour Technician (RBT).

I have completed 6 modules of British Council Online Courses, which included

- Understanding of Lesson Management 1 & 2
- Engaging with learning technologies- Cyber well-being
- Engaging with professional development- Keeping up to date
- Engaging with professional development- Peer Observation
- Understanding Special Educational Needs (SEN)
- Engaging with SEN- Gifted and talented learners
- Understanding Child Protection

Also a Online Diploma in Special Needs Education.

My passion for continuous learning and understanding makes me a promising candidate.

I have 2 years experience with assisting. Working with children requiring special attention and support has helped me learn the uniqueness of an individual child and has improved my skills to read and understand a child's behaviour. I aim to use my skills.

I would describe myself as someone who is very punctual and I am passionate about my work. Combined with my experience, I believe that I can make a valuable contribution to your organization. With this position I expect to be able to develop myself further as it aligns with my career path.

I would like to further explain my motivation for this position during a personal meeting. You can reach me either by phone via 32279610 or by email via K.kadri@live.com.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Khawla Kadri
