Mena Chambers Bahrain (April 2018 – August 2018)

Legal Intern

During my time in Mena Chambers Bahrain, I was trained in various fields of the law such as litigation, mediation, negotiation, consultation and mainly arbitration. I learned how to draft contracts, legal suits to the civil courts, corporate consultations.

My intensive training in arbitration during those few months expanded my knowledge of many domestic laws and regulations as well as many international laws- especially those towards arbitration rules and procedures.

Hassan Radhi & Associates (July 2016 – August 2016)

Legal Intern

During my internship in Hassan Radhi & Associates I have acquired various skills as a young lawyer. My internship focused mainly in the litigation field. In those short months, I learned how to draft legal suits to the civil, family and criminal courts.

On many occasions, mock-trials were established to help expand the interns' knowledge of the procedures followed in the Bahraini courts, which by the end of my internship I left Hassan Radhi & Associates with great knowledge of the legal proceedings that helped me later on.
