The majority of my experience has been within Customer services (Hospitality, Catering, Jewellery industries) Hotels, Travel agencies, and inflight Catering Retails.

Whilst working in Cyprus , UK and GCC I have gained greater knowledge of the Hotel and catering business and Sales to be an customer service specialist.

I have worked in food and beverage department and front Desk and sales Department in middle and managerial levels.

Working as a tour representative, sales executive, food and beverage Outlets assistant manager, restaurant manager and Senior Commercial Promoter has also improved my skills to learn more about customers needs and gained more knowledge such as planning, communicating and problem solving.
