Recruitment Manager
Kingdom of Bahrain

Dear All,

I am writing today in application to the Retail related position . I am confident that my trained in point-of-sale systems and customer relations, as well as my experience in Bahrain Dutyfree make me an excellent fit for this position.

As my attached resume outlines, I have 6 years of experience working in the Retail field. I have achieved numerous awards , with outstanding results, and I am confident I can achieve similar results for my new company. I am hard worker, consistent and can work under pressure with positive outcome which i know are important to your organization. I am looking for an opportunity to grow and to look new opportunities , and develop leadership and critical thinking skills, while offering expertise in competitive personality.

I greatly appreciate you taking the time to consider my application. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you further regarding how I can contribute to the continued success on your company. Thank you again.

Regards,
