To Whom it May Concern

Hasan Abdulredha Habib Hussain Sarhan

I am happy to support Hasan's application to study for a postgraduate degree in Comparative Literature.

I came to know Hasan while teaching him during his time as an undergraduate student in the Department of English Language and Literature at the University of Bahrain, from which he has recently graduated with a BA in English Language and Literature.

Hasan proved himself to be intelligent and hard-working, with a drive and ambition to succeed. As a student, he consistently demonstrated his ability not only to learn and apply new information but also to show a high degree of critical analysis, making him a valuable contributor to classes. Language-wise, Hasan has a high level of proficiency in both English and Arabic and is able to express himself fluently in both spoken and written modes. In addition to the qualifications he already holds in English Language and Literature, Hasan is learning French and will next month sit the exam for the DELF diploma with a view to continuing towards achieving the DALF qualification.

Since graduating, Hasan has involved himself in teaching English to young learners as well as helping and advising undergraduate students who require and seek extracurricular assistance in order to overcome any academic-related difficulties they might be experiencing. I believe that with his qualities, personality and experience, Hasan has all it takes to succeed in his quest for a higher degree.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
