Dear Hiring Manager

It is my pleasure to be applying for a position at your esteemed organization.

I am a UK educated, native Arabic business consultant with 18 years of rich experience. I have consulted, worked for and represented many international corporations such as Alcatel OneTouch and CST Industries.

I am versed in robotics, VR/AR, digital marketing and sustainability.

I have composed studies, business plans and conducted presentations to many industry leaders and government officials in the GCC and the MENA region for such clients as Emaar, Saudi Al Commission, Alhukair Group, Bahrain's Ministry of Youth and Abu Dhabi Municipality to name a few.

I have access to projects and opportunities with solutions that deal with current pandemic and its effects on the GCC's business environment and have opportunities for unique scalable startups.

I hope to be part of your team and to extend my knowledge while building a career within your valuable institution.

Thank you for your kind consideration.

Yours,

Ahmed A Baharoon
